

Mary And Collins Just Don't Mix

By : Stormbird Throneshaker

Poem, Song Lyrics written 07/24/2012

Published on Booksie

booksie.com/Stormbird Throneshaker

Copyright © Stormbird Throneshaker, 2014
Publish your writing on Booksie.com.

Mary And Collins Just Don't Mix

Bloody Mary married Tom Collins and they moved to Collinsport Maine

After a few years of maulin'

Mary drove old Tom insane.

Tom met his vampire cousin who took Mary out on the town
People were dying by the dozen cause Barnabas showed Mary all around.

Chorus:

Have you ever been in a fix
Mary and Collins just don't mix
Tom married the devil's daughter and blood ran thicker than water.

Mary met his werewolf cousin
Tom had to get away and soon
Lord knows there was no lovin'
Quentin was howling at the moon.

Tom went out of his head
looking high and low to search
For the gun that shot her dead

Mary And Collins Just Don't Mix

on his last night on Earth.

(Repeat chorus)

Mary And Collins Just Don't Mix

Mary And Collins Just Don't Mix

Created from Booksie.com

Generated: 2014-07-30 15:22:34