

Ode To The Walton's

Ode To The Walton's

By : Stormbird Throneshaker

My own words to the Walton theme music. Written 12/06/2011

Published on Booksie

booksie.com/Stormbird Throneshaker

Copyright © Stormbird Throneshaker, 2015 Publish your writing on Booksie.com.

Ode To The Walton's

Oh please lend me your ears Close your eyes, let me take you to a place dear to my heart while it's fresh in my mind Thinking back on those days Ma's and Pa's stayed together and brother's and sister's played and worked side by side Maybe we didn't have much but we had one another and fond memories of those days gone by Where I could dream at night of becoming a writer and one of those days my dreams came true
So please lend me your ears
Close your eyes, let me take you
to a place dear to my heart
while it's fresh on my mind Thinking back on those days wish we could be together my brother's and sister's Ma's and Pa's side by side

Ode To The Walton's

Ode To The Walton's

Created from Booksie.com

Generated: 2015-01-30 21:03:19