I get butterflys

I see you walk by
That's when you caught my eye
I became spechless when you said "Hi" to me
You smiled at me for the first time and I smiled back
That's when i felt the butterflys in my chest dizzying me
Butterfly's in my stomach making me dizzy when I look at you
They lift me up into the stars and sky where I'll meet up with you
We walk down the old school street the mext day, hand and hand together
My heart beats so loadly i can beraly keep it beat softly, I dont want you to let go
When I walked you home I kissed you goodbye and you said you loved me forever
That's when I relized it wasn't a dream but I was really with you forever and ever loving you

I get butterflys

I get butterflys
