Some To Talk To

Its hard to find someone friend and stranger alike who you can really talk to that makes you feel your not the only one who's walked in your shoes for at least a day or two

Sure, there is family and the others
but they will go along with what pleases you to make you feel like you belong

Who listens to you closely

With an interest in your thought and a similar mind who will believe your word blindly who is polite, eloquent and kind

I look upon this world, eyes open yet, its hard to find one such person and the more I look, the less I see somone who agrees and opposes me

Being like that, truly is a virtue yet its hard to find such somone, its true but You for me are one of those people that I can really talk to
