Diamond to Coal

Diamond to Coal

Once so young and innocent

Running along with no shame

Only knowing loves descent

Never knowing true pain

Growing up faster than light

Learning what pure evil is

Seeing people cripple the dreams in flight

Feeling only deep sorrows kiss

Peel away the shield

Knock away the mask

The torment will never yield

Just awaking is a task

Cradle my dreams with a knife

Wish that the angel would come for me

The angel that would end all the strife

Feeling like death is the key

Slap away my hope

See my agony unfold

A scream my last heard note

Diamond to Coal

Diamond to Coal

Read my story and you will see a transformation

A diamond to coal
