the question...

~~for the very 1st time ever,~~
~~we really fought~~
~~over a simple n fair question~~
~~why cant u just answer it?~~
~~u said u dun care what i think~~
~~but why when i ask that question inn my fb for people's opinions~~
~~you commented it n kinda was angry?~~
~~then the fb war happens~~
~~seriously we never acted this way, especially me thou~~
~~never ever my intention of watever doin....wants to hurt u~~
~~but that day,im just so pissed that u couldnt answer that question~~
~~i guess my mind just when insane n things got out of control~~
~~we bashing each other on fb~~
~~n friends were all in shock~~
~~never they see me acting this way~~
~~what more saying harsh word publicly...~~
~~threw my hp to the wall~~
~~my room was a mess~~
~~in the end i stop comment~~
~~deleted the post n off my laptop~~
~~i dun remember what happen~~
~~but the next day i woke up~~
~~wif my right hand bruise n bleed~~
~~since im a medical student,radiographer~~

the question...

i xray my hand,yeah it is indeed broken...

but the weird thing after the whole fb war is

my feelings...is numb

n my mind is balnk...

up until now i feel that way

n for someone like me its not normal

i wonder if this is how people feel after they fought with their bff???

or is this a feeling of worn out???

i really dunno....

but at the same time

i just feel so peace thou

so im really confused

very confused...

well, i deactivated my fb account

i didnt receive any txt from her n i sure as hell aint gonna txt her 1st..

well,guess this is all i want to share
