Chapter 1: O'megas.

Captain's log 44321 We recently encountered a new set of species we not know where they come from but we do know they are high security and are to be treated as such. Our military government is struggling it is.....INFORMATION CORRUPTED....10 Years ago.

Chapter 1.What we have become.

"Commander Lithos sir!" I said urgently.

"You need to see this" Lithos looked at me and glared.

"What can be more important then me eating right now?".

"Uh Outpost Normad1, just spotted thugs outside the gate"

Lithos spitsout his drink 'Well did they catch them?' Lithosasked with with frustration.

"Um no, but we will" I said in a low voice.

"Goddamns Matt, those thugs carry high tech information that we need to win the war."

"I know. I know. You know we didn't always use to be in wars." i started talking

Lithos interrupted* "Don't Matt I know what we have become I regret it but we have no choice" Lithos said in regret. "We all have a choice its a matter of believing it or not."

Explosion Red Alert

Comlink Commander! Raiders have attacked our fleet!

"Send all fighters out immediately!" Lithos said urgently

"Matt if they breach the blast doors you know what they will do. Kill them all." Lithoscommanded with anger.

"Yes Sir", I replied

I was not sure that we were doing the right thing. We didn't use to be generals we used to be guardians. But I guess war changes us.

"Commander!" One soldier said as Lithos entered bridge. "Raiders destroyed ship 3 and 6, all other ships taking heavy damage!"

Lithos looked at that soldier in frustration. "Soldier put all comlinks to all available ships now!" immediately the soldier did so.

"All captains this is Lithos Prime of Omega outwing. We must not let these raiders get the best of us. You know what will happen if they do. All firepower to maximum. We must advance our attack" All ships began to open fire they're deadliest weapons they opened on all ships.

O'megas. 1 Shall fall.

"Sir! All ships are falling back!" one soldier said with excitement.

"Press on" Lithos said.

Eventually the raiders attacked ended. A total of 14 ships destroyed on their end, On our end could've been worse. The battle was a great loss for our empire. A few hours after the battle a General from Omega's Base was displeased with Lithos actions on Rahab, Lithos was called to his cabin while the general awaited his arrival. After a few minutes of waiting Lithos finally arrived. As soon as he entered the general said.

"I am most displeased in your lack of faith on Rahab" The general said with anger as he glared in to the mirror.

"General. I'm sorry. I made a mistake" I said with remorse

"YOU killed overthree-hundred of our men just for one liyba, ONE!" The general said with deep anger.

I thought to my self how can he say this its not easy leading a war.

"You don't know how hard it is to lead a war. I have over Five Thousand men to lead and more to come! I HATE THIS WAR" I said with frustration and sadness.

The General quickly said

"I know how you feel. Wanting to leave this war. We have become Warlords Generals in battles We are driven by madness this war is corrupting our future and our empire." General said with regret.

"But do not make the same mistake again. Or you will be stripped of your promotions and leadership." the general said as he walked out.

I tightened my fist as I looked at him leave. Maybe we are not who we used to be.

Chapter 2: Omega's

Chapter 2 Chaos Part 1

You never really know what will be tomorrow, you don't know your future what it will be like. All we do is hope that what mistakes we do won't mess up our lives. If you could freeze time what would you do? Would you try and change your mistakes? One thing we all wish was that this never happened. We let out a monster. We released hell.

Thirty-Two hours earlier

Soldiers run down the hanger area. Everyone in a hurry I was quite curious what all the rushing was. I made my way down to the armory to pick up supplies for our landing on larbarah.

"Sir Lithos !" One soldier said loudly

I dropped my things as I got startled by his presence.

"Crap you scared him mate. How can I help you Carl?" I said curiously

"Nothing sir just saying hello"

He walked off. I thought it was weird.

I carry my things to the hanger for drop off point

"As soon as we arrive I want these things dropped of immediately" I said demanding

"Larbarah? But sir Why there?" The soldier said frightend.

"Because we are going build an outpost there" I said with a smile.

"Sir Larbarah is no place to build there. Its One of the darkest planets we have in the Cori Solar system.

"Ehh there's darker ones then thisâ lâ !"

"Besides I don't know why you guys are so scared. All of you have been acting weird today."

O'megas. 1 Shall fall.

I walk off to get more supplies. But at the corner of my eye I saw a shadow. I turn back but thought it was nothing. So I continued on.

10 hours later.

We finally reach our destination. I go talk to Matthew my supervisor.

"Matthew! Are we ready?" I asked curiously

"Ah Lithos sir. Indeed we are. Although it's going take some time getting this stuff off the ship." he informed

"That's ok, we have plenty of time. But do you know what's going on around here? Everyone is acting strange" I asked with concern, I was beginning to wonder.

"Well sir all I know is thatâ he began to say, power surge

"Matthew are you ok!" I yelled out to him

I heard no response from him.

All of the sudden the lights came back on. Matthew was gone.

"What the heck" I said with confusion

Not knowing what was going on I called to the bridge. But there was no answer. At this point I was worried I searched the whole entire ship but everyone was gone. I make my way to Medical Attention Room or it's also known as [MAR]. When I got there something was not right.

"What is going on here?" I yelled

The lights flickered, Papers were everywhere. I saw men's uniforms hanging from the ceiling. I heard Whispers from behind me. I turned back just a little bit to see. I saw a trooper in the hall way.

"Oh my god at least someone is here. What is going on here?"

Lights started going off one by one. The soldier then started running at me. I turned back to run but the room had a wall. It just appeared out of nowhere. The trooper came at me closer. At this point I was scared. Just as the trooper was about to touch me all the lights came on. Everyone was on the ship doing their job. My heart was pounding so hard I can hear it. I was frightened. I did not know what was going on I make my way back to the hanger "hopefully This does not happen again" I said to my self

Chapter 3: Chapter 3 Chaos part 2

CHAPTER 3

Chaos part 2

"We are what we become, Some become great others with evil. They say not to let the evil things cloud your path or it will destroy you. This I did. - Miles Wilson.

We finally reached Larbarah The darkened planet of the Cori system. We prepare as the drop ships began to fly out of hanger 332

I kept having flash backs of what happened to me last night. These weird dreams I have been having. But I do not know if they are dreams. I hear whispers calling my name "Lithos Lithos" I hear them.

"Sir?" he asked

The voices just stopped.

"Um, Yes Soldier" i replied

"Your shuttle is ready captain." he informed to me

"Thank you"

I make my way in to the shuttle.

"Ah Lithos, Welcome." one trooper greeted me.

"Thank you, everything is in its place?" i asked to make sure

"You bet" He answered me

The pilot began to fly out of hanger 332.

I felt dizzy, fairly quickly, and then out of nowhere I started sweating. Voices began to get deep, the lights went dim.

"Lithos! Sir! What's wrong?" I heard a soldier with a low voice.

Everything then went black. I wake up on a medical ship. My legs and arms restrained, I looked around at my surroundings.

"This is not A Omega ship" I thought to myself, where the heck was I?

The lights began to flick rapidly. One of the doors began to open slowly, along With a Low growl behind it.

I broke free from one of the restraints holding my arms. I quickly grabbed a knife that was lying upon a table, whatever it was behind the door, it didn't sound friendly.

O'megas. 1 Shall fall.

The door then swung open. Behind the door was only but a room filled with darkness but soon after, a beast then stepped out, the beast was ferociously hideous, his greyish skin made him look like a living carcass, he had two large on the sides on his head and if that wasn't ugly enough, his long ears made him look even more disturbing. He began to speak to me with an eerie voice.

"Their not coming for you Lithos." he growled to me as he stepped closer to me, "My master will be pleased to eat your skin." he kaughed evily.

But the beast didn't stay put, it then let out a loud scream, that pierced my ears and charged at me.

Then everything stopped, once again. I woke up on Larbarah in one of its medical facility's.

"He's awake!" one soldier said with joy.

"Lithos sir, Are you alright? You passed out."

"I am alright. There's something about this place. Evil, I've been having these dreams. In fact I do not know if they are dreams anymore." I informed them, " Are there any places here that might have any Liyba's?" I was concerned.

"Not that I know of, Larbarah has been stripped clean of Liyba's for over 10 years. Why?" Nathan asked with curiosity.

"Well, you better search this planet again. I feel this planet is under great evil."

"Lithos Libya's? Really? There can't possibly be that much of them for you to feel it."

"Nathan, Is there any places here that the Larbarahians took part in?" I was trying to get more information as to why this was happening.

"The monastery.... that's the only place I can think of." he tried to re-call.

"Then gather some of your men and go check it out." i ordered

"Yes Sir"

When they began to leave I started to do some research about Larbarah to see if there was anything unusual that they so called worshiped. But then again everything is unusual now.

Nathan called me back a couple of hours after he left.

"Nathan, Nathan what do you have?"

"Sir we are at the monastery but there's nothing here its all abandon. Are you sure..

I quickly interrupted Nathan

"I'm sure, there's liyba's here. It's a monastery look for a lever or something."

"Lithos this place is over 400 oens old. If there's a lever here it's probably broken"

O'megas. 1 Shall fall.

"Nathan please I"

" Sir? I what?"

"Lithos? Lithos! Who's in there with you? Who is that? Sir!"
