The thoughts of the lost soul

You come to me with, scars on your wrists ! this will be the last night, i will put up with this !
as i watch the scars deep in my heart, i notice that i'll be stuck in this bottomless pit !
Will you look at me ! come and show me you care !
as i lie here with you in my arms i feel that we are so distant apart i look into you sapphire eyes you bend my will to your desire What are these emotions, pulling me aside as i feel that ive been in divide pieces of my soul so distant apart please come and tell me im in your heart.
