Please don't go...

Please don't go...

Please don't go.

Don't leave

when you wake.

When I still sleep

as if i were dead.

Stay,

and don't run away.

I gave you everything,

everything in sight.

Even though

you haven't givin one thing to me.

You have my heart and soul.

I have your nights

Combind them and stay.

If not

I will find you again.

But please don't runaway.

Please don't go...

Please don't go...

Please don't go...
