Character Concert Comics

Party Girl

Party girl's played out
Gone without a shout
Are hollow friends
Thought to stay about.
Party girl's crying;
No longer flying.
Where to next?
Got to keep trying,
There's one been waiting
Can take the hating,
Yes, give you peace
And fix your aching.

Kid Adrenaline Rush

Chasing a high
That won't satisfy.
Racing after a prop
To keep your actor's hop.
Trying hard to avoid
Facing that deep void.
Cover it up, up, up
Evade growing up, pup,
Until you sup
Of the eternal cup.

Temptation Tony

During the Vietnam War, according to a story told to one of my students by his grandfather, a monkey repeatedly warned a troop of the approaching enemy. This tale began when the soldiers found a wounded monkey after a battle and nursed it back to health. The soldiers and the monkey adopted each other; thereafter, the monkey would warn the troop when any enemy soldiers got close to them.

Tony, along with all of us, has a built in warning system like an alarm which goes off as sin approaches. Of course, if Tony ignores the alarm and sins and sins some more, it will eventually get buried and be hard to recognize. Like you and me, Tony has a conscience that
