Lif3

Life; what is life?

Life is one big cliché

in everyway.

People lie, steal, cheat

We all applaud ignorance

and stupidity,

Banishing all who can save

this world

Life is an upward struggle

You will never get your way

They say

Life isn't fair

No shit

If everything were fair

We'd have the perfect world

Where no one died

No one cried

Wouldn't that Utopia be lovely?

Life is what we must endure

We must make it through

So who can decide I'm unworthy of life?

Who can say death is worse

Than all this torture

What is life?

I'm tired of life
