Renegades 1

The power to change the world

In the eyes of every boy or girl You could be a god, king Or a queen These words we write Be them wrong or right Our power, our vigor These words are our liquor Our ideas are drugs Marijuana for the lugs Itâ s heroine for Edward now The opium for Chairman Mao We drop bombs, speaking grenades We are the Renegades The rebels And our words dig like shovels Into the hearts and minds From the past and for future times We are the change the world needs You, him, her, me Every soul has a purpose Our reason on this earth is To inspire with truth This hazardous youth

To save without fame

This world we must tame

With our power at last shared

Our strengthâ | becomes theirsâ |
