

The Purpose

The Purpose

By : Atton Brown

So i decided to start a notebook where anyone can write their thoughts in. Random thoughts or if your having a bad day. I just want them to know that even if i don't know you, someone really does care about them and you.

The Purpose

â Tell me how you feel,â I say,

â And Iâ I'll make the pain go away.â

Slowly my mind forms a purpose

My reason to be on this earth is

To help them

Not on a whim

But when they need me

Iâ I'll be

There

To care

When no one else does

Because I was

The one

Who needed someone

Anyone

To take the gun

To listen when I speak

To not make me feel so weak

I needed someone, but no one was

So I will be there because

We all need someone to care

Donâ t you dare

Deny

Or even try.

The Purpose

The Purpose

So maybe, Iâll be that guy

A little weird

That will, when you need me most, appear

The one to say

Just write it once today

And the pain starts to go away

The Purpose

The Purpose
